Prosecutor Charges Local Man in one of “Worst” Child Porn Cases

November 13, 2007

FLINT -- Genesee County Prosecutor David Leyton has charged a 33-year old man with 16 felony counts for what the Prosecutor calls one of the worst examples of child porn cases he has ever seen.

According to an investigative report from the Sheriff's Department, Kevin Traver Odette was moving from Vienna Township to a new residence in Burton earlier this month when his sister-in-law discovered evidence of child porn recordings belonging to him and reported it to authorities. That report led Sheriff's deputies to a discovery of VHS tapes and DVD's belonging to Odette that provide evidence Odette has committed criminal sexual acts and manufactured child porn recordings involving numerous children and teenagers between 7 and 13 years old.

Prosecutor Leyton has charged Odette with 16 criminal sexual conduct and child porn acts involving 5 individual victims from Genesee County. In all, Odette is being charged with six counts of 1st degree Criminal Sexual Conduct involving a person under 13 years of age, each count carrying a possible maximum sentence of life imprisonment; one count of 2nd degree Criminal Sexual Conduct involving a person under 13 years of age, which carries a possible maximum sentence of 15 years imprisonment; four counts of Child Sexually Abusive Activity and four counts of Using a Computer to Commit a Crime, each with a maximum possible sentence of 20 years imprisonment; and one count of Criminal Sexual Conduct with intent to commit penetration, a ten year felony.

A pre-trial conference is scheduled for this Friday in 67th District Court with a tentative preliminary examination set for next week.
