RICHFIELD TOWNSHIP, Michigan -- A convicted sex offender was arraigned Wednesday on charges he sexually assaulted his stepmother, who has Alzheimer's disease.

Jeffery L. Rosencrants, 41, was charged with four counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct with a vulnerable adult. District Court Judge David Goggins set bond at $75,000 for each count.

Police allege Rosencrants began having sex with his 68-year-old stepmother shortly after he got out of prison and moved into the Richfield Township home she shares with his father.

Rosencrants spent 12 years in prison for conviction of third-degree criminal sexual conduct involving children.

Rosencrants is expected back in court May 30 for a pretrial hearing.
