FLINT, Michigan — Dalante Odom, 18, was arraigned on an open murder charge in the slaying of his mother with a frying pan.

Odom allegedly beat his mother, Victoria Odom, 37, after she returned to their Brunswick Avenue home shortly after noon on Monday.

The teenager was hospitalized after the incident where he was injured, but it's unclear how he was injured. Neighbors said he had bandages on his arms.

Dalante Odom is being held without bond in the Genesee County Jail after he was arraigned Thursday afternoon by 68th District Court Judge M. Cathy Dowd.
