

Genesee County Prosecutor's Office

David Leyton, Prosecutor

2008 Traffic Safety Summit

Each year, the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning (OHSP) hosts the Michigan Traffic Safety Summit which is a 3-day event that focuses on highway safety tips, trends, and practices for law enforcement, traffic engineers, public health agencies, non-profit organizations, and local, state, and federal agencies. This year, OHSP asked Prosecutor Leyton to make a presentation on the Genesee County Fatal Alcohol Crash Team, which was recognized at the event's closing awards luncheon by the Governor's Traffic Safety Advisory Commission.

For more information on the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, click here.

Prosecutor opens the presentation

Michigan State Police Sgt. Tim Robbins, F.A.C.T. Team Commander

F.A.C.T. Team Leader Sgt. Tim Jones of the Flint Twp. Police Dept.

Prosecutor Leyton takes questions at the conclusion of his remarks.

Law enforcement officers and prosecutors from around the state listened as Prosecutor Leyton discussed the F.A.C.T. program,

Special Assistant Prosecutor John Potbury, Prosecutor Leyton,
Sgt. Tim Jones, Sgt. Tim Robbins