

Genesee County Prosecutor's Office

David Leyton, Prosecutor

The NAACP Flint Branch 2nd Annual Symposium Brunch

Prosecutor Leyton was invited to be a panelist at the 2nd Annual Symposium brunch hosted by the Flint Branch of the NAACP. The event was held at the Library Event Center on the campus of Mott Community College and drew about 100 people in attendance. The theme this year was "CSI: Current Social Issues that affect your quality of life." Joining Prosecutor Leyton in the discussion were other guest panelists including representatives of education, law enforcement, business, the media, health care, and others.

For more information on the NAACP, click here.

Sheriff Pickell, Prosecutor Leyton, and Flint Journal Editor Tony Dearing talk prior to the start of the symposium

Ward 3 Flint City Councilman Kerry Nelson leads the audience in song.

Prosecutor Leyton makes a point during the discussion

Prosecutor Leyton answers a question from event Chair and M.C.C. Board Member Celia Turner

Prosecutor Leyton, Celia Turner, and City of Flint Police Chief Gary Hagler